Time, in its eternal haste,

has brought another June to Rutland, and the cap and gown to the Mount St. Joseph Class of '41.

We, the editors of the 1941 "Mount," have compiled this brief record of our class, not for its historical significance alone, but in an effort to recapture the atmosphere and spirit of four happy years at M. S. J. Hence, we have attempted to encase both between these leather covers, in the belief that at some future time they may become the key that unlocks the portals of memory leading back to these joyous days, our "life's springtime."

THE VERY REVEREND JOHN M. BROWN, V. F.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1941, deem it a special honor and privilege to dedicate our yearbook to the Very Reverend John M. Brown, V.F., pastor of St. Peter's Church on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee Year of his Ordination to the Holy Priesthood.

Father Brown has spent fifty fruitful years in the service of God and his fellowmen, beloved and respected by young and old. Many of us have received Baptism at his hands and have known Father intimately since our attendance at St. Peter's school. His cheerful manner, as well as his kind interest in our welfare, has endeared him to each of us, his grateful children.

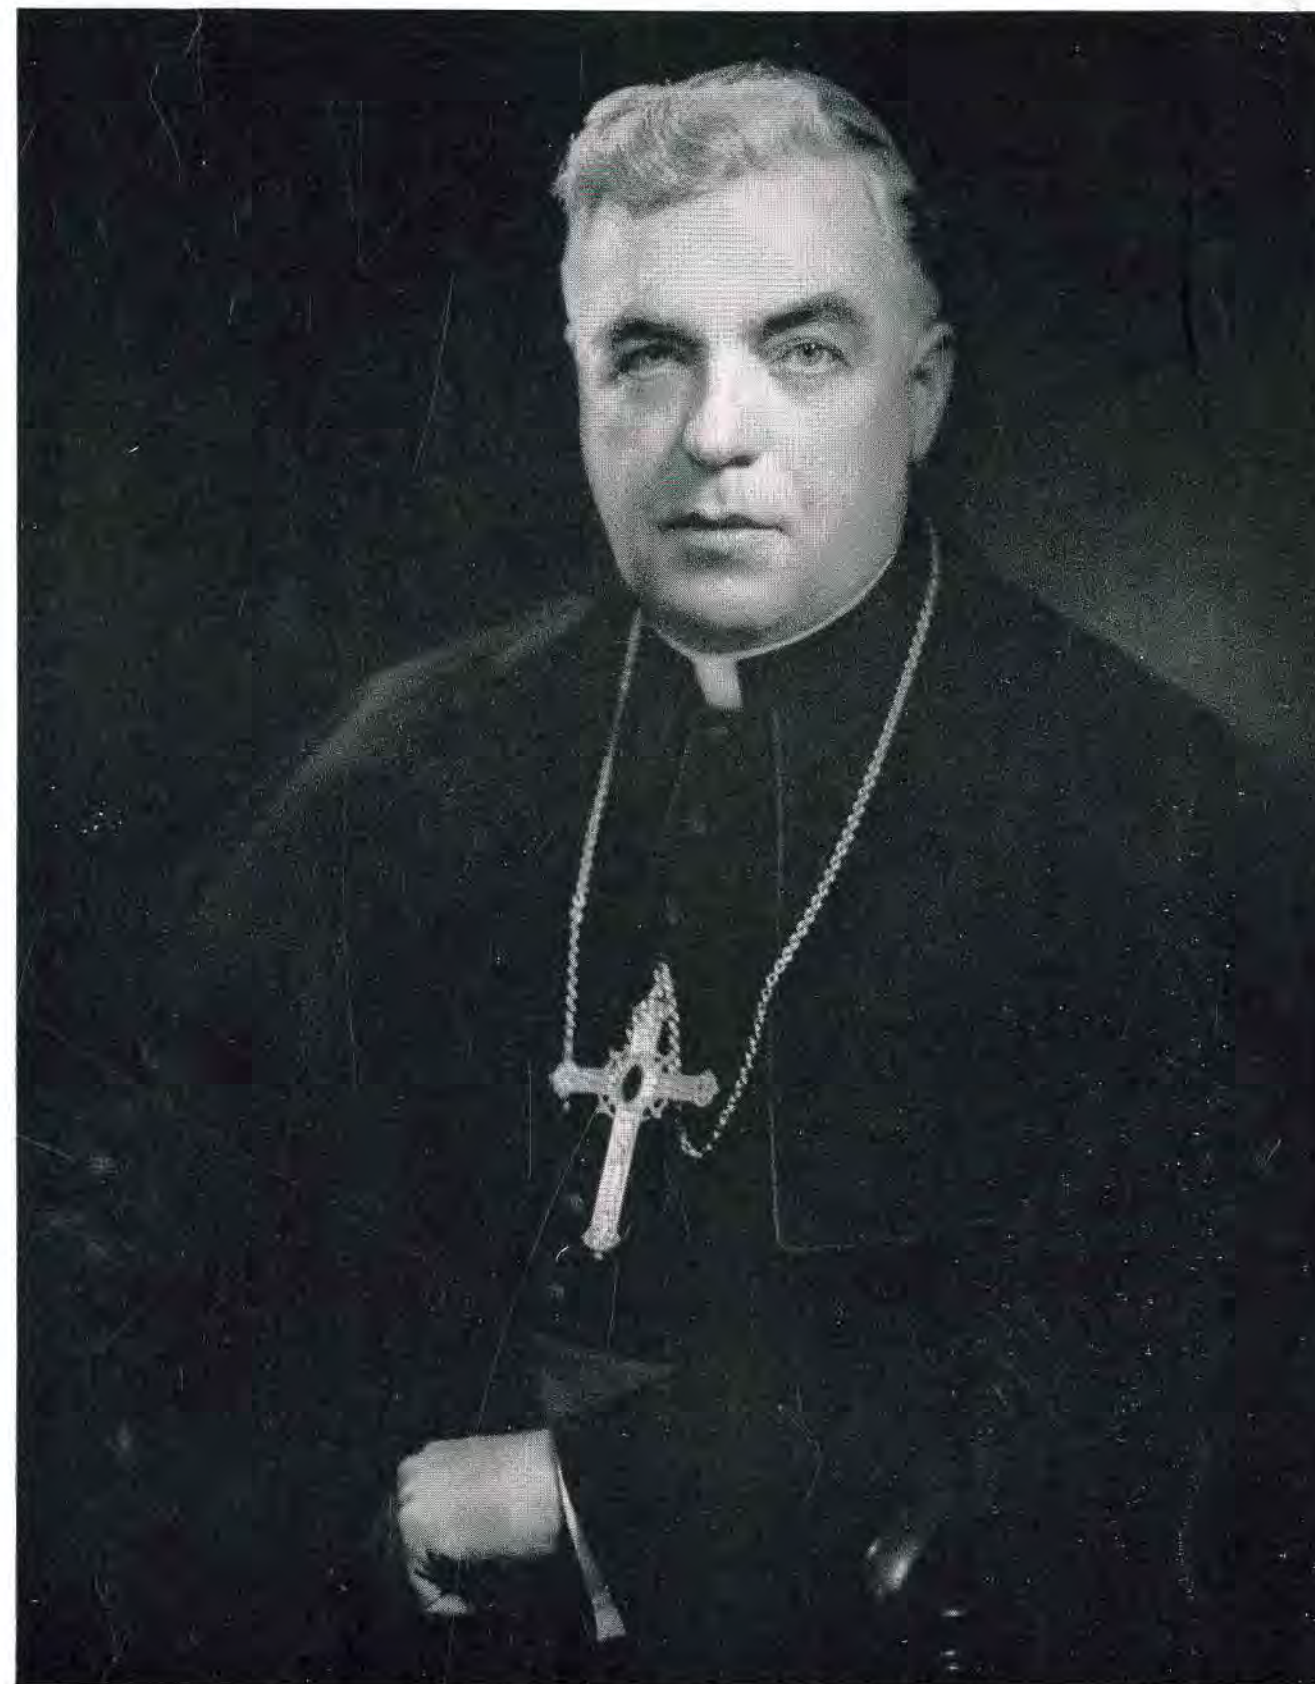

We extend to Father Brown our sincere congratulations and appreciation.

We'll pray to thee always, St. Joseph,
And ne'er will our prayer be in vain;
To imitate your holy virtues,
Will be our constant aim.

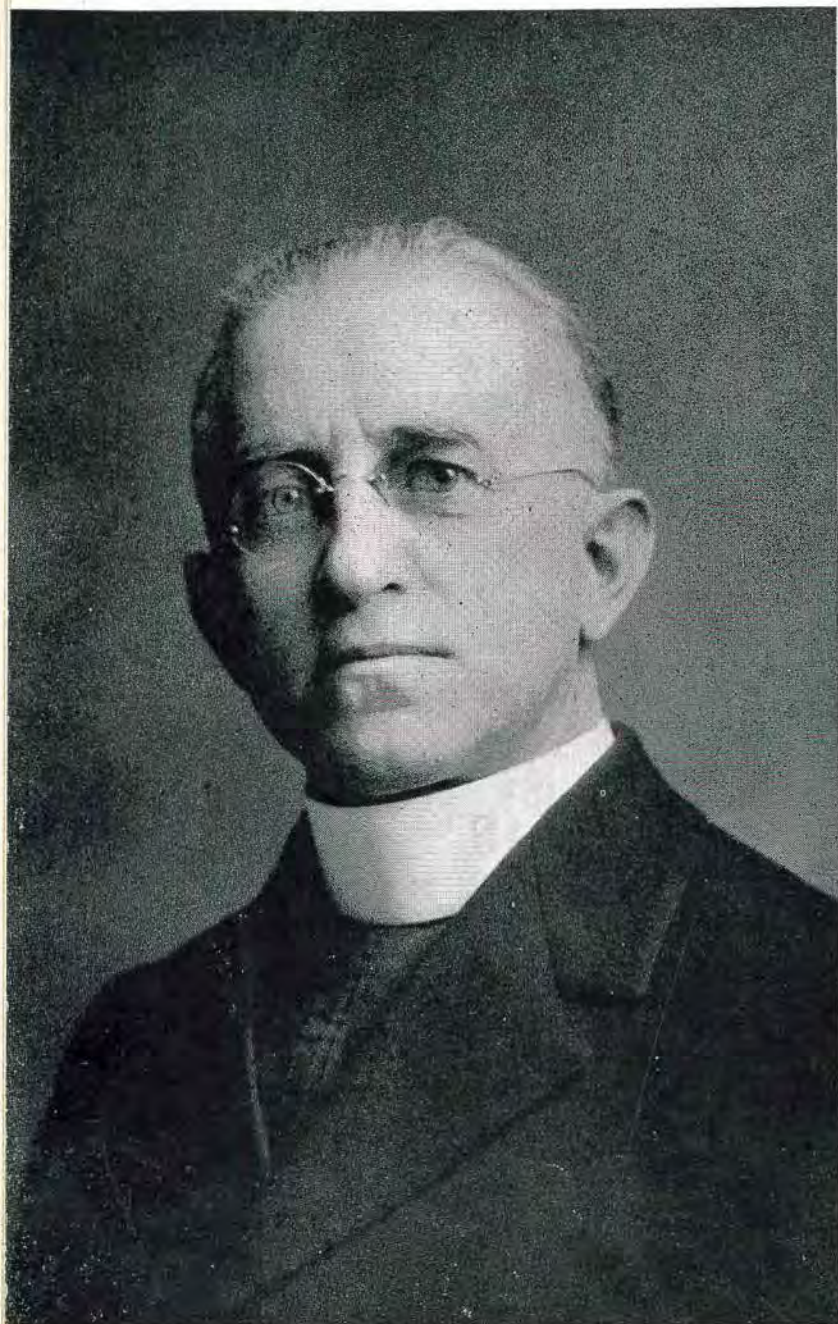

ST. JOSEPH, TITULAR PATRON OF THE ACADEMY

THE MOST REVEREND MATTHEW F. BRADY, D. D., BISHOP OF BURLINGTON

To our beloved and highly respected Most Reverend Bishop Brady, who by his gentle wisdom, winning firmness, and self-sacrificing love is so zealously extending the Kingdom of Christ among men, the Class of '41 express their sincere desire that God may grant His Excellency length of days in the Burlington diocese.

REVEREND JOHN M. KENNEDY

To Our Beloved Priests

The Class of 1941, through the pages of "The Mount," extend to Rev. Father Vezina and Rev. Father Kennedy sincere appreciation for the gracious interest, kindly encouragement, and gentle Benediction with which they have made our years at the Mount so profitable. Through their efforts the "Way of Truth and Light" has been made accessible to us, and noble ideals inspired in our hearts.

We also pay grateful tribute to Reverend Father Miller, Reverend Father Maloney, and Reverend Father Marcoux who have come weekly to our classrooms to impart Religious Instruction, and who have organized various activities and societies for our benefit and pleasure.

REVEREND THOMAS H. CONNOR

Our Tribute

We feel fortunate, indeed, to have the privilege of expressing to our Chaplain, the Reverend Father Connor, a sincere acknowledgement of our appreciation of his presence among us.

His kind concession to our slightest requests, as well as his mild adherence to what is noble and upright has, at all times, made Father Connor an inspiration to us. In him we recognize the model "Alter Christus," who mingles the human with the spiritual in order to win souls to Christ.

We Thank You

At the close of our high school days at Mt. St. Joseph Academy, we wish to thank sincerely our self-sacrificing teachers, the Sisters of St. Joseph, who were our instructors in our early school years, as well as those who have guided us during our Academy days, teaching us always to "Seek First the Kingdom of God."

To Reverend Mother M. Josephine who has provided us with model classrooms and class equipment, to our Principal, Sr. M. Regis, to our Sister Teachers, to Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Erickson and Mr. Moore we pay a lasting tribute of affection and appreciation.

Mount Memories

Alma Mater, our seat of learning
It is of Thee we sing;
For we have spent most joyous hours
Beneath Thy fostering wing.

Daily, for the last four years,
Through Thy portals we have passed,
To learn how to fight the world's battles
By trust in God, firm and fast.

In the silence of your dear chapel,
We found help and strength for our souls;
Kindly aided by devoted teachers
We have striven for worthy goals.

Now, we are parting from Thee,
To launch out into life's sea;
Dear Mt. St. Joseph Academy
Of Thee our fondest memories will be.

Valedictory

We, the class of 1941, have assembled here tonight, on the occasion of our graduation from our beloved Alma Mater, Mount Saint Joseph Academy. We will step forward soon to receive our diplomas, feeling relieved and light-hearted now that years of study, instructions, and examinations are completed. Yet, we know that this is the beginning of a new life—a facing of the years ahead, relying more on our own resources than ever before in our lives.

For those of us who will complete our education in a college or university, courses of study will still continue; for others the struggle for a position, adjustment to business, and social relations with more mature persons—all these will claim our immediate attention. While some few may have the false idea that they will be able to conquer the world with ease, the vast majority of us are ready for hard work.

With the horrors of war spreading rapidly, and its economic repercussions sounding throughout the world, we know that we are living in abnormally serious times. As graduates of Mt. St. Joseph, we feel we are especially prepared to meet these odds, for the training of our youthful lives has not been in vain. Strengthened in character, as well as informed in mind, we are indebted to our dear parents and teachers for our Catholic education which gives us the courage to go on with confidence with the Prince of Peace as our Guide.

Salutatory

Dear parents and friends, it is my unique privilege to greet you this evening in the name of the Class of 1941. Your presence at our graduation exercises is but another of the many proofs of your kindly interest that has followed us so closely during our high school course at Mt. St. Joseph Academy.

Tonight is your night, in a certain sense, as well as ours. You have made possible for us, by your sacrifices, the benefits of a Catholic high school education. Hence it is, with feelings of deepest gratitude and appreciation, that we welcome each and every one of you to our commencement program.

To our pastors, who have aided us spiritually, as well as materially, to our Principal and members of the faculty, to whose untiring efforts much of our success is due, we extend the encouraging promise that we will try to live up to the noble principles which they have so deeply impressed upon our minds during the past four years.

JAMES FOSTER

President's Address

WILLIAM FAGAN

For twelve anxious years we have been striving diligently for this day that draws us near to the achievement of our goal—graduation. Our hopes and inspirations have been fulfilled; tonight we welcome you to our Class Night Exercises. We are now ready to take our places in the everyday world.

Graduation, to some pupils, means the end of the pursuit of knowledge, or the seeking of any definite aim; but to graduates of Mount Saint Joseph it is the stepping stone to success. From it, some will merge into the business world, others will advance to higher education. Whatever our choice of vocation may be, due to the excellent training afforded us by competent and zealous teachers, we are well qualified to withstand courageously the storms of a confused and troubled world.

As president of the Class of 1941, in the name of each graduate, I extend deep appreciation to our pastors and to their assistants for the wholehearted interest they have shown in our spiritual and material welfare; to our teachers, who have spared no efforts in their attempts to impart to us the knowledge of mind and soul we now possess; and above all to our parents, who have made untold sacrifices that we might attend a Catholic high school and thereby obtain a thorough foundation in the truths of our Religion, as well as in secular studies.

Keeping these sacrifices in mind, we shall ever strive “to sow the good seed” among our fellowmen by living exemplary lives, as truly Catholic American citizens.

Class Song

Music—JAMES FOSTER

Words—EDWIN BASSETT

I

The hour has come companions all,
A parting song to sing; echoing through the hall,
Our voices clear in sweet accord,
In final chorus will sing no more.

CHORUS

Dear Alma Mater,
We bid you fond adieu,
As from your portals,
We leave to labors new,
And through the years before us,
No matter where we be,
We'll always cherish memories of thee.

II

No fear of failure does our future hold,
Our prow is guided by the "Master's Hand."
We'll toil for God and for our countrymen,
And find our rest in His Promised Land.

Class History

We were a most illustrious class. Surely, there has never been a group of students enrolled at M. S. J. as brilliant as those of 1941. From shy, stammering freshmen, we have developed into the outstanding "Class of 1941." Our accomplishments are not to be overlooked, or exceeded, as I shall attempt to prove to you.

Early in our senior year we held our class elections. William Fagan was elected president; Rita Todriff, vice president; Thomas LaPenna, secretary; and Shirley Swift, treasurer. At the first assembly of the Athletic Association James Foster was chosen president; Shirley Swift, vice president; Theresa LaVecchia, secretary; and Paschal Pratico, treasurer.

In September the "Clarion" under the editorship of Martina Cannon published its first edition. Our school paper gained honor by being chosen a prize winner in the Columbia National Contest. October 2 the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary elected Dolores Burke, president; Edith Rotella, vice president; Rita Todriff, secretary; and Sheila Fagan, treasurer. On the evening of October 26, the freshmen were our guests in the school gym. After the initiation a social evening was enjoyed. In this month, too, Elizabeth Graziano, Mary Bennett and Mary Margaret Burke were guests of the Castleton Normal School at their annual Senior Day. In November Reverend Matthew Miller of the Franciscan Order conducted our school retreat. The retreat is the outstanding activity of the year and is looked forward to with eager anticipation by all students at the Academy.

November 22 and 23, M. S. J. pupils sponsored a Bazaar. The affair, with Albert Cree as student chairman, was under the direction of the senior class and proved to be a big success.

In December the Mount competed in a stamp contest with St. Francis De Sales Academy, Utica. The Academy, with Geraldine Shoro as star stamp collector, was the winner.

February 17 we presented our Senior Play, "America First." This play will long be remembered as one of our best senior achievements and we shall not soon forget the splendid acting of the eleven characters: Edwin Bassett, Alice Laughlin, Shirley Swift, James Foster, Albert Cree, Richard Davis, Marilyn Alexander, Pauline Traynor, William Fagan, Verna Lauro and Robert Stuart.

The next big event in the Senior Calendar was the Southern Vermont Tournament at the Armory. M. S. J. won the title of runner-up in the championship game and Robert Ballou was chosen one of the All-Tournament Five.

Class History

The Prize Speaking Contest was held March 1. Theresa Hamel was selected winner and represented the school at the district contest in Burlington. Francis Caggige was awarded second prize and Helena Leahey, honorable mention.

April 1, the Academy competed with Poultney and Fair Haven high schools in the annual one-act play contest which was held in the school gym. The senior members of the cast of the Mt. St. Joseph entry, "Ile," are Edwin Bassett, James Foster, Henry Russo and Guy Startari. April 18 the senior class was well represented at the second annual Junior Prom sponsored by the class of '42.

As the school year advanced and graduation began to draw near the "Mount" staff began work in the compiling of the data for the yearbook. Edwin Bassett was named editor-in-chief and James Foster, business manager. April 18 and 19 the Senior debaters took part in the Vermont Interscholastic Debating contest held at the University of Vermont. Albert Cree and James Foster supported the affirmative and Edwin Bassett and William Fagan the negative side of the Academy's team.

May 1, the annual May Procession took place. On the first and second Sundays of May, the Alumnae and Alumni, respectively, were host to the Senior Class at Hotel Bardwell. Rev. John Hinchey and Rev. Walter Miller were guest speakers on these occasions.

May 9, the Academy participated in the Tri-School Typing Contest in which St. Michael's High School, Brattleboro, and St. Margaret's High School of Dorchester took part. The week of June 3, several seniors took part in the Music Graduation Concert.

Monday, June 9, the class enjoyed a picnic at Lake St. Catherine. Wednesday afternoon we held our Class Tea at 5:00 P.M. at Long Trail Lodge and after attending Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Academy Chapel, we presented our Class Night Program at 8:15 P.M. at the Strand theatre. Our commencement exercises were held in the Armory, Friday, June 13, with His Excellency the Most Reverend Matthew F. Brady, D.D., Bishop of Burlington, presiding and Reverend Patrick A. Barry, speaker for the occasion.

Such is the record of the remarkable class of '41, and it will be pleasant to recall it in future years.

DEAR DIARY:

Words can hardly express the pleasant experience I had today. I met Joseph Lovett, an old classmate of mine, and what an interesting chat we had! Memories of long ago came back as we talked on and on. Gradually curiosity urged me to inquire about the classmates from whom we had parted ten long years ago. Joe, you know, is a traveling salesman and since his duties take him to ever so many places, he was well able to inform me about the Class of '41. ## The Clarion

The members of the 1941 "Clarion" staff presented their first edition of our school paper in September, 1940.

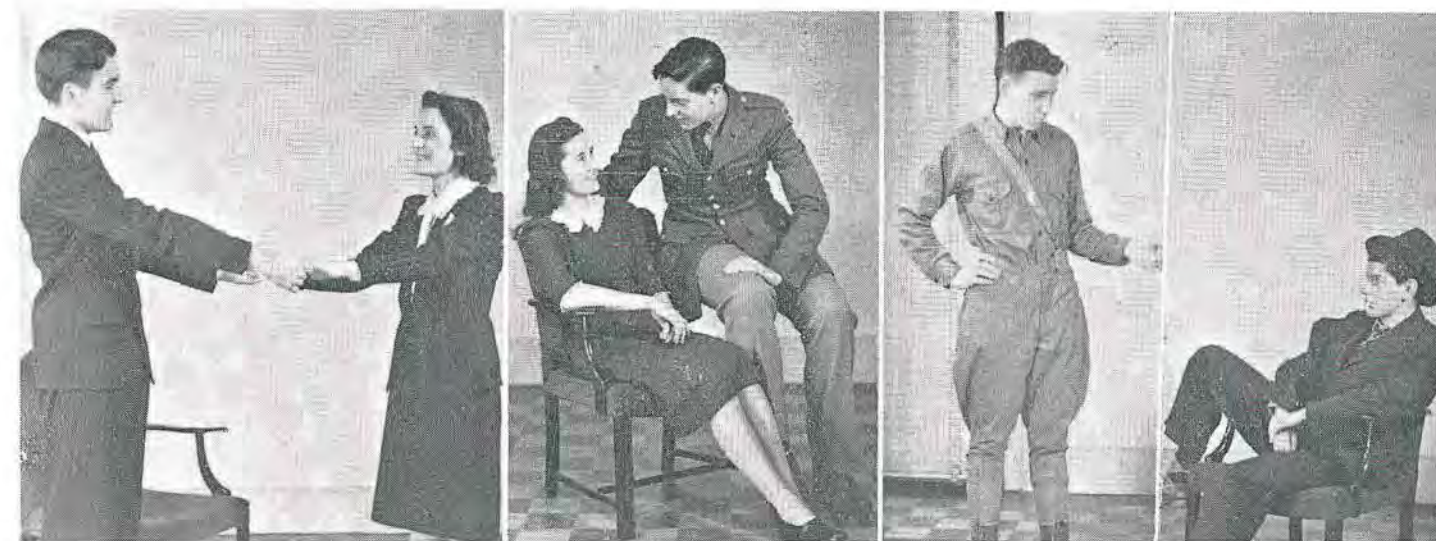

Published bi-weekly under the editorship of Martina Cannon and a capable staff, the 1941 "Clarion" had a most successful year. In January the paper was enlarged to a five column edition. For the seventh time the Academy's publication gained recognition in the Columbia National Scholastic Press Association contest sponsored by Columbia University.

The "Clarion" staff expresses gratitude to its faculty adviser, Sister Agnes Marie, for her helpful supervision, and to its advertisers for their loyal support.

Senior Play

February 17, the Class of '41 under the direction of Sister Mary Jerome, presented a three-act comedy drama, "America First," at a matinee and evening performance at the Rutland High School Auditorium. This was a play of one-hundred-percent Americans, who find themselves embroiled in the subversive activities of a group of aliens, out to corrupt the ideals of American youth. It was a play of exciting situations, amusing comedy moments, tense action and heart interest. The cast included the following players: Edwin Bassett, James Foster, Alice Laughlin, Shirley Swift, Albert Cree, Verna Lauro, Marilyn Alexander, Richard Davis, Pauline Traynor, Robert Stuart and William Fagan.

In April the Mount entered the annual district one-act play contest and competed with Poultney and Fair Haven High Schools in the school gym. The Academy's entry was the play "Ile" by Eugene O'Neil and was coached by Sister Mary Imelda. Edwin Bassett, James Foster, Henry Russo and Guy Startari were the senior members of the cast.

Mt. St. Joseph Sodality

In September, members of the Mt. St. Joseph girls' Sodality elected the following officers to serve during the 1940-1941 school year: president, Dolores Burke; vice president, Edith Rotella; secretary, Rita Todriff; and treasurer, Sheila Fagan.

Under the direction of Sister Mary Annunciata the officers planned activities for the year. In October the members entered a stamp contest with St. Mary's High School, Utica, N. Y. in which the Academy was winner. Christmas baskets for needy families were provided by the Sodality, and in February a skating party was enjoyed by the members.

The numerous spiritual benefits derived from membership in this association, and the many social activities sponsored by the sodalists during the year have made the Mt. St. Joseph Sodality one of the prominent societies of the school.

Junior Holy Name Society

October 6, under the direction of Reverend Thomas Connor and Reverend Walter Miller, the junior branch of the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's Parish was formed. Officers were chosen from the boys of the class of '41. Thomas LaPenna was elected president; James Foster, vice president; John LaVecchia, secretary; and Frank Caggige, treasurer.

Ranking among the foremost parish youth societies, the Holy Name group is composed of Mount Saint Joseph boys who number two hundred strong. The Society has been active in social and athletic affairs and has been recognized as a leader in all spiritual projects.

Its first activity was a banquet given in November, at which the Most Reverend Matthew F. Brady, Bishop of Burlington, was in attendance. During the year several dances and bingo parties were sponsored for the benefit of the Catholic Boy Scouts. Its contribution to athletics was the inaugurating of the Catholic Boys' Basketball League and the Young Men's Catholic Softball League.

The members of the Junior Holy Name Society receive Holy Communion in a body every four weeks. As a charity project they delivered baskets of food to needy families during the Christmas Holidays.

The Holy Name Boys strive at all times to live up to the purpose of their society, namely, "To Honor and Revere the Holy Name of Jesus."

Debating

Among the activities of our junior and senior years, debating held first place in our forensic programs.

As juniors, under the direction of Sr. Agnes Marie, the affirmative team, composed of Shirley Swift, James Foster, and Albert Cree successfully upheld the resolution that President Roosevelt should serve a third term against the efforts of the negative—William Fagan, Alice Laughlin, and Edwin Bassett.

Our senior debating team, coached by Sr. M. Jerome, was entered in the district tourney held at the Mount in which Middlebury, Wallingford and Fair Haven high schools were contestants. The subject was the national debate topic, "Resolved that the Nations of the Western Hemisphere Form a Permanent Union." The returns showed that Middlebury and Mt. St. Joseph had qualified for the State Meet in the order named.

In Burlington, April 19-20, the team composed of Albert Cree and James Foster, affirmative, Edwin Bassett and William Fagan, negative, won fourth place in competition with seven other contestants.

Prize Speaking Contest

March 1, the annual prize speaking contest directed by Sr. M. Annunziata was held in the school gym. Theresa Hamel, whose selection was, "On His Honor" was winner of first prize and represented M. S. J. at the district contest in Burlington, April 25. Second prize was awarded to Francis Caggige, and honorable mention to Helena Leahey.

Green Mountain Boys' State

The 1940 Green Mountain Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion, was held at Norwich University during the week of June 23-30. Using the motto: "Learn by doing," two hundred twelve boys from all parts of the state studied and practiced the principles of democratic government. To add variety to the program the youthful legislators played baseball, basketball, and tennis for recreation.

John Clifford, Thomas LaPenna, John LaVecchia, Joseph Lovett, Albert Cree and James Raleigh, the Mount St. Joseph delegates to Boys' State, enjoyed keenly their experiences in the various phases of politics involved in State government, such as the campaign speeches, elections, town meetings, sessions of the legislature, as well as the daily entertainment program and exhilarating swimming.

Those serving as chairmen of the various committees were: Peter ValPreda, transportation; Shirley Swift, publicity; and Henry Russo, floor arrangement; James Foster, Joseph Lovett and Mary Margaret Burke comprised the lottery committee. ## Mt. St. Joseph Orchestra

The Mount St. Joseph Orchestra has constantly become more efficient and excellent in its performances this year under the capable supervision of Sr. M. Evangelist.

Practices are attended weekly by all the members. The orchestra has added to all the social events at Mt. St. Joseph as well as to many entertainments throughout the city and in nearby towns.

Our musicians furnished entertainment at the Senior Play, the Music Graduation Concert, Class Night and Graduation Programs.

Mt. St. Joseph Band

Resplendent in new green and white uniforms, led by drum major, Arthur Bellmore, and drillmaster, John Clifford, flanked on either side by five attractively-attired majorettes, the Mount Saint Joseph band always wins admiration.

The band presented a colorful appearance as it played lively strains at many of the football and basketball games during the year.

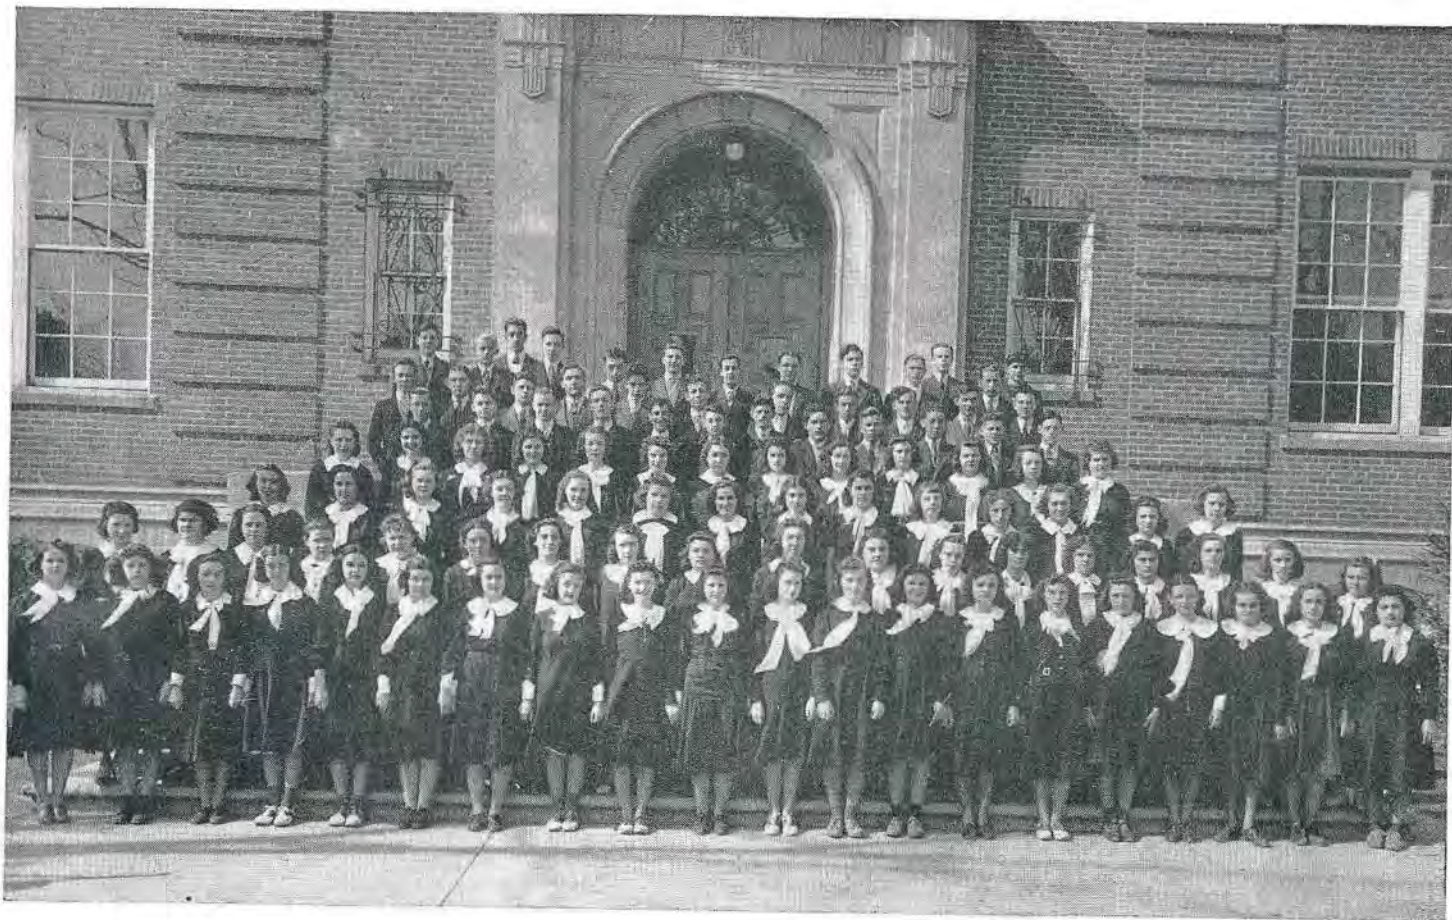

An important feature of life at Mt. St. Joseph, it has, under the direction of Sr. M. Evangelist, distinguished itself on numerous occasions, such as: May Procession, August 15, Governor's Day, Southern Vermont Tournament, Schoolboy Patrol Convention, Woodstock Memorial Day Celebration, and the May Concert.

M. S. J. Glee Chorus

The Mt. St. Joseph Glee Chorus under the direction of Sister Mary St. John held practice weekly throughout the school year. This year the choruses have made a study of the famous American, as well as European composers. Foremost among the accomplishments of the choristers was the singing of the Gregorian Chant at St. Joseph's Day Mass.

The boys' and girls' choruses have furnished music at the program in honor of St. Cecilia, Mass on St. Joseph's Day, May Day Procession, June Concert, Requiem Masses, Benediction, Holy Hour, and graduation exercises.

Varsity Football

Mt. St. Joseph's version of football in the 1940 season was, as it always has been in the past, a complete success, and was practically a repetition of the previous year. For the second time in succession, the Mounties copped the Marble Valley League Championship with an unblemished record. During the season the Academy gridsters won seven contests and dropped one. Their seven victims were: St. Mary's of St. Albans, Hartford, Proctor, Middlebury, Poultney, Fair Haven, and West Rutland. Rutland High School was the only team to outscore the Acads on the gridiron.

In the eight games played the Wave piled up a total of 144 points, against 49 for their opponents, which gives them an average win of about 18-5.

Varsity Basketball

Coach Al Baldwin, as well as the entire student body of Mt. St. Joseph, have just reason to be proud of the efficient basketball team which represented the Academy, in the 1940-41 campaign.

During the season the team won an enviable record, and was foremost among the leading teams of the State. In the Southern Vermont League, the Acads ended up in the No. 3 spot with a record of eight wins against six set-backs. In the Southern Vermont Tournament, they blasted away at all opposition, and fell short of the Championship, when Springfield High School tripped them in the finals. The Mounties participated in the State Tournament at Burlington where they were, after a terrific struggle, downed by a strong Cathedral five in the opening rounds.

In the entire season, including the Southern Vermont and State Tournaments, the Wave scored 755 points against 682 won by their opponents.

The combination of Russo, Daly, Morris, Ballou, and Lovett supplemented by the reserve duties of Hackett, Walker, Lemmo, and Margo made all opponents literally fear the fighting spirit of M. S. J.

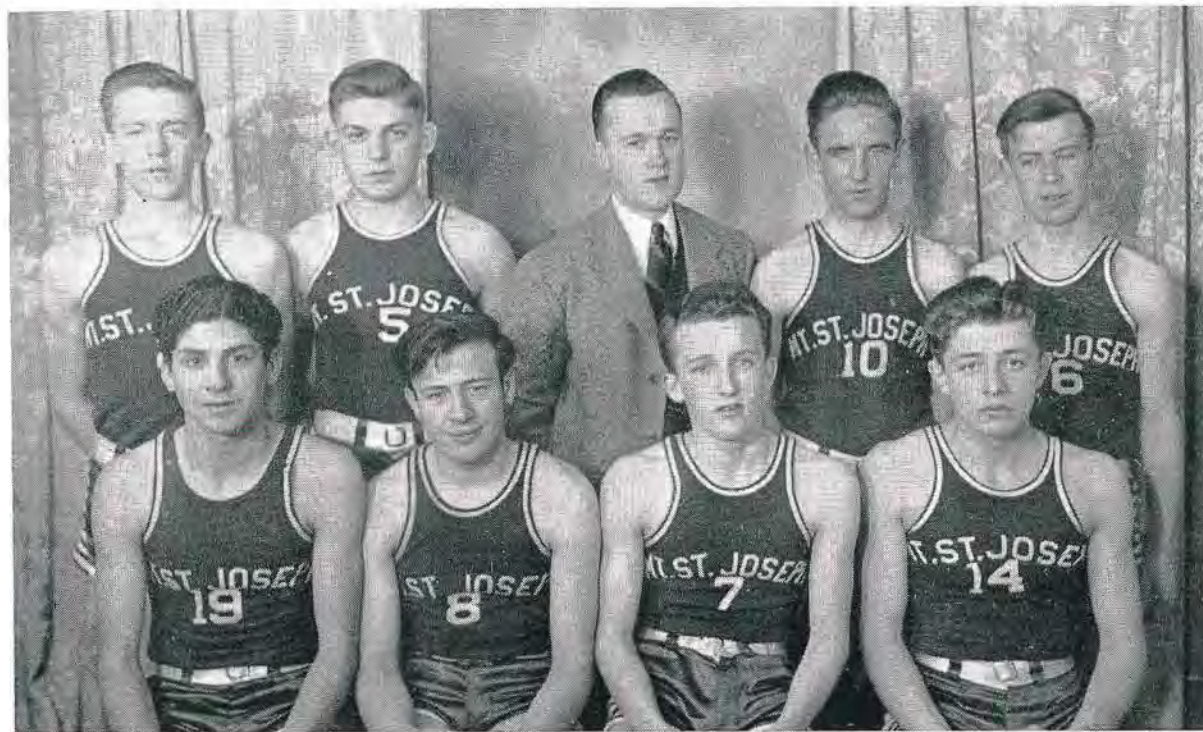

Herb Russo led the Academy scoring attack with a total of 171 points in 23 games played, while Jack Daley ranked second with 145 points in as many games. Joe Lovett was another prominent scorer with 126 points in 21 games. Bob Ballou, while not a high scorer, made up for this in his defensive tactics. Bob's election to the All Tournament team in Southern Vermont proves his ability as a ball player.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Under the mentorship of Coach Joe Moore, the Junior Varsity won creditable standing in their class of basketball—that of State Champions. Only one defeat was suffered by the Mooremen in the '40-'41 season and that at the hands of the Windsor Junior Varsity, a team noted for its victories on the home court. Cool, steady, and fast ball handling were the determining points of the Jayvee success.

Many of the players on the Jayvee squad were also prominent in the varsity games. Foremost among these were Hackett and Walker, who contributed a great deal of offensive as well as defensive power to the Academy five.

Judging from the brilliant display of teamwork and talent on the part of the Mooremen, Coach Baldwin will have little difficulty in filling positions which have been left open due to graduation of varsity players.

The state champs, all Sophomores and Freshmen, promise a lively type of basketball during the next few seasons.

Girls' Basketball

The prime purpose of the weekly gym classes at Mount St. Joseph's is to develop in the girls a sense of competitive sportsmanship. Through the medium of the inter-class games the girls are given a chance to compete with girls of equal ability, and thus exercise a spirit of rivalry. This aim has been fully realized during the past season.

Aided by the competent coaching of Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Moore, the senior girls came through with flying colors to capture the basketball title for their class. The shooting ability of Dorothy West, Lena Spine and Eleanor Thrall coupled with the excellent guard work of Mary Margaret Burke, Theresa LaVecchia and Mary Valente won success and recognition for their team.

Varsity Baseball

Under the capable management and direction of Coach Al Baldwin, the 1941 baseball team made one of the finest starts in the history of the school. As we go to press, the Acads are winners of five contests out of six, losing to Rutland by a 10-9 count after winning five straight.

The '41 infield is composed of Walker at first, Hackett at second, Sapinski at short and Pratico at third, with Oskoski doing the receiving. In the outer garden there is McGinnis in left, with Flory in center, and Dolphin in right.

In almost every game the pitching staff has worked royally. Babe Spoon, our freshman southpaw, astonished everybody by accomplishing the unbelievable—pitching a no-hitter.

Besides Spoon, three other twirlers comprise the pitching department. They are Hank Smith, Ace Bartlett, and Rod Fagan.

The Acads at the plate have battered opposing pitchers relentlessly, some of them holding batting averages well above the .400 mark.

NOW OR NEVER

When "to-morrow" has come
It will then be "to-day,"
But yesterday's chances
Have vanished away.

Success is a challenge,
We must win it somehow.
To-morrow is never,
To-day is right now.
